DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

All are invited to pray the Chaplet of Divine Mercy following each Mass on Saturday evening April 11th and Sunday morning April 12th. The Chaplet will begin after Father leaves the Altar and we sing the closing hymn. To fittingly observe the Feast of Mercy, we should: 1) Celebrate the Feast of the Sunday after Easter; 2) Sincerely repent of all our sins; 3) Place our complete trust in Jesus; 4) Go to confession, before that Sunday; 5) Receive Holy Communion on the day of the Feast, or at the Vigil Mass; 6) Venerate the Image of the Divine Mercy; 7) Be merciful to others, through our actions, words and prayers on their behalf. To venerate a sacred image simply means to perform some act or make some gesture of deep religious respect toward it because of the person whom it represents—in this case, our Most Merciful Savior. Novena to the Divine Mercy begins on Good Friday—prayer pamphlets in the vestibule.

OF ONE HEART AND MIND

Reading about the faith of the early Christian believers can be a real inspiration to those of us who have been Christians for a long time, as well as for those who are newly baptized. Can you imagine people of this world being “of one heart and mind” as was the first community of believers? Today’s First Letter of John seems to hold the key to how this can be accomplished. Keeping God’s commandments and loving all of God’s children seems to be the start of being “of one heart and mind.” We live in a world that stresses differences—differences among religions, among races, between genders, and among economic classes. Today we are summoned to focus on what we all share in common on this fragile planet of ours.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

When we imagine the disciples cowering behind locked doors on the first Easter, it is a matter of the greatest urgency that the doors get opened. They are not locked in as if in prison; rather, they have chosen to marinate in fear. Both the lock and the key stand on their side of the door, in their control. Christ breaks through this significant barrier with a message of “Peace.” The risen Lord’s word propels them through the door and along the path leading to the consoling image of the community living in harmony in the first reading today. What do we pray for in our tradition? More than anything else, we pray for peace. Every Mass is an earnest prayer for peace with God, with self, with neighbor, and for peace in the world. Yet, curiously, the peace Christ offers is deeper than the mere absence of conflict. Our tradition treasures the memories of saints who were remarkably open to Christ’s gift of peace even in the maelstroms of history. St. Edith Stein and St. Maximillian Kolbe, martyrs of the Holocaust, are but two examples. At the eye of a fearful storm, they stand as witnesses to the power of Christ’s rising in our lives.

—Rev. James Field.

CHRIST IS HERE

Christ departed from our sight that we might return to our heart, and there find him. For he departed, and behold, he is here.

-St. Augustine

CATHOLIC CHARITIES APPEAL 2015

God invites us every day to love unselfishly, give freely and to share our gifts without counting the cost. It is the mission of the Catholic Charities Appeal of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia to Give Hope to the most vulnerable and needy. We are all called to join in the mission. Your support of the 2014 Appeal did just that. You helped surpass its ambitious goal of $10,000,000 for the second year in a row. Last year our Parish raised $9,008.00. This year we are only at 31% of our goal of $9,222.00. St. Lawrence Parish has only raised $2,850 so far. If you have not given or are able to give a little more, please do so as soon as you can. Pope Francis reminds us, "Today, amid so much darkness, we need to see the light of hope and to be men and women who bring hope to others."
Your kindness truly matters.

Men's Club Meeting: the monthly meeting of the Saint Lawrence Men's Club will be on Monday, April 13th at 7PM in the Parish Hall. All men of the parish are invited to attend.

Altar & Rosary Society Meeting: the monthly meeting of the Saint Lawrence Altar & Rosary Society will be Thursday, April 23rd at 7PM in the Parish Hall. All women of the parish are most welcome to attend.
